

NOTICE

Effective at noon, Thursday, August 19, 2010, the counties of Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond and Westmoreland have rescinded the ban on open burning that has been in effect in each of these counties for the past several weeks.

Citizens are asked to resume their routine burning activities with care to reduce the possibility of an uncontrolled spreading of fire.